The screenshot displays a Python IDE with two windows. The left window, titled 'pyth.py - C:/Users/Jeffin Rohith/AppData/Local/Programs/Python/Python310/pyth.py (3.10.7)', contains a single line of code: `print("IBM Project")`. The right window, titled 'IDLE Shell 3.10.7', shows the execution output. It starts with the Python version and architecture information: 'Python 3.10.7 (tags/v3.10.7:6cc6b13, Sep 5 2022, 14:08:36) [MSC v.1933 64 bit (AMD64)] on win32'. It then prompts the user to type 'help', 'copyright', 'credits', or 'license()' for more information. The output continues with the execution of the script: `>>> print("Hello World")` followed by `Hello World`, and `>>>` followed by `= RESTART: C:/Users/Jeffin Rohith/AppData/Local/Programs/Python/Python310/pyth.p` and `y`, and finally `IBM Project`. The status bar at the bottom indicates the current line and column: 'Ln: 2 Col: 0' on the left and 'Ln: 8 Col: 0' on the right.
